Travel & Experiences

BUENOS AIRES CITY & COUNTRYSIDE

Our beloved Buenos Aires. Unique, bright, awake 24 hours and captivating. Cradle of tango and land of passions such as football and art.

The province of Buenos Aires is home of traditional farms, “asado”, mate and friendly people

USHUAIA & ANTARTIDA

Ushuaia, the southernmost city, is located between the Beagle Channel and the southern Andes Mountain range.

Here, the mountains enter the sea and the city is surrounded by forest and glaciers. Cruises sail to Antarctica from Ushuaia, and also to the south of Chile.

SOUTH PATAGONIA

Patagonia, Argentina and Chile, is one of the regions with the most beauty and secrets to be discovered.

Large areas not yet populated, ice fields impossible to travel, stories of explorers not yet written, which make Patagonia a land of fascination and legend. Home of the famous Fitz Roy Mount in Los Glaciares National Park, and Torres del Paine National Park in Chile.

NORTH PATAGONIA

Unquestionably, this is one of the most beautiful areas in South America. Peaceful getaways in nature to extreme adventures. The common denominator is to be outdoors surrounded by landscapes of lakes and snowy peaks mountains. Bariloche is the entrance city to the lake district and the crossing into Chile, sailing lakes and crossing the Andes Mountains.

CROSSING BORDERS

The most incredible landscapes of Argentina and Chile, combined.

From North to South, crossing the Andes Mountains.

Argentina and Chile have several border crossings that offer incredible landscapes. Whether by route or sailing, you will jump from one country to another.
